RULES XX AND XXI AS AMENDED JUNE 1, 1920

Section 2, Rule XX:

"2. No amendment of the Senate to a general appropriation bill which would be in violation of the provisions of clause 2 of Rule XXI, if said amendment had originated in the House, nor any amendment of the Senate providing an appropriation upon any bill other than a general appropriation bill, shall be agreed to by the managers on the part of the House unless specific authority to agree to such amendment shall be first given by the House by a separate vote on every such amendment."

Section 5, Rule XXI:

"5. No bill or joint resolution carrying appropriations shall be reported by any committee not having jurisdiction to report appropriations, nor shall an amendment proposing an appropriation be in order during the consideration of a bill or joint resolution reported by a committee not having that jurisdiction. After the unfinished business has been disposed of, the Speaker shall call each standing committee in regular order, and then select committees, and each committee when named may call up for consideration any bill reported by it on a previous day and on the House Calendar, and if the Speaker shall not complete the call of the committees before the House passes to other business, he shall resume the next call where he left off, giving preference to the last bill under consideration: Provided, That whenever any committee shall have occupied the morning hour on two days it shall not be in order to call up any other bill until the other committees have been called in their turn."

CALENDAR WEDNESDAY CALL UNDER CLAUSE 7, RULE XXIV

"On a call of committees under this rule bills may be called up from either the House or the Union Calendar; excepting bills which are privileged under the rules; but bills called up from the Union Calendar shall be considered in Committee of the Whole House on the state of the Union.

"This rule shall not apply during the last two weeks of the session.

"It shall not be in order for the Speaker to entertain a motion for a recess on any Wednesday, except during the last two weeks of the session.

"Provided, That not more than two hours of general debate shall be permitted on any measure called upon Calendar Wednesday, and all debate must be confined to the subject matter of the bill, the time to be equally divided between those for and against the bill: Provided further, That whenever any committee shall have occupied two Wednesdays it shall not be in order, unless the House by a two-thirds vote shall otherwise determine, to consider any unfinished business previously called up by such committee, unless the previous question had been ordered thereon upon any succeeding Wednesday, until the other committees have been called in their turn under this rule."

The motion shall be placed in the custody of the Clerk, who shall arrange some convenient place for the signature of Members. A signature may be withdrawn by a Member in writing at any time before the motion is entered on the Journal. * NOTE.—House was in recess from June 19 to Sept. 23, 1929. Three-day recesses from Sept. 23, 1929, to adjournment Nov. 22, 1929.

In a statistical comparison with the work of previous Congresses the two sessions of the Seventy-first Congress should be grouped. Such a basis of comparison will give more accurate results, inasmuch as the bulk of the work of the Congress did not commence until the second session. During the first session only the Committees on Agriculture and Ways and Means of the legislative committees were organized. A large number of bills were introduced, but the reference to committees did not take effect until the organization of the committees in the second session.

The total laws of the two sessions numbered 927, which were divided as follows: House bills 582, House joint resolutions 73, Senate bills 238, and Senate joint resolutions 34.

The House passed 453 House bills, 17 House joint resolutions, 5 Senate bills and joint resolutions which did not become laws.

There were introduced in the Senate 4,782 bills, 206 joint resolutions, 33 concurrent resolutions, and 316 simple resolutions. The Senate passed 503 bills and 59 joint resolutions. The Senate committees made 1,163 reports.

The Senate passed 265 Senate bills which did not become laws. Of this number 7 were indefinitely postponed in the House and approximately 43 were referred to committees because similar House bills had become laws or were further advanced in the process of becoming laws.

Of the 238 Senate bills which became laws, 92 were enacted in lieu of an equal number of House bills which had been reported from committees and which were laid on the table to facilitate the enactment of the legislation.

Of the 582 House bills which became laws, there were included 5 omnibus pension bills containing 2,512 House bills and 907 Senate bills (added to the House bills as amendments).

The grand total of laws, including those enacted in omnibus pension bills, was 4,341, of which 3,167 were originally House bills and 1,179 were originally Senate bills.

Vetoes by message numbered four, of which one was passed over the veto (S. 476). Three bills failed to become laws through lack of signature after adjournment of the Congress.
