

Vice President of the Senior Class Paul E. Kanjorski

Miss McRae, distinguished guests, members of the faculty, parents, and friends. We, the senior class of 1954, take great pleasure in welcoming you to our commencement exercises. The senior class of 1954 is the largest class ever to graduate from Capitol Page School. Unlike most schools, we have had the pleasure and opportunity of obtaining our education in the halls of Congress, as well as in school. Of course, our unique experiences aid us in many ways, but not at the expense of our high school responsibilities. The counseling, guidance, and help of you—our parents, teachers, friends, and associates on Capitol Hill—has given us the assistance to cope with these responsibilities. Whatever we ultimately accomplish will be a reflection of your efforts. With gratitude and humility, may I say welcome the class of '54. Thank you. {applause}
