

Attorney General Herbert Brownell Jr.

Excerpt from Page School Graduation Ceremony Record \(Parts 7 and 8\), 2005.014.004a

---

And so I think that one of the most important things you have learned in these past months here, when you've been acquiring these well-deserved degrees, is of what fundamental importance it is to the future of our country, the safety, and the welfare of its citizens, that we should study at every opportunity, and give great care, to any proposals that are made, or any actions, which tend toward destroying that form of government. Where the powers of our government over its individual citizens are so distributed among the three branches that no one, if they conform to the letter and spirit of the Constitution, shall ever be able to establish a tyrannical system of government in our beloved country.