DEED OF GIFT
ORAL HISTORY PROGRAM
OFFICE OF THE HISTORIAN
U.S. HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

I, Joe Strickland, herein permanently give, convey, and assign all rights to the Office of the Historian, U.S. House of Representatives, to my interview of November 14, 2018, consisting of video recordings and transcripts. In making this gift I understand that my interview will be made available to researchers and may be quoted from, published or broadcast in any medium, printed or electronic, that the Office of the Historian may deem appropriate. I also approve the deposit of the video recordings and transcripts with the Clerk of the House for inclusion in the records of the U.S. House of Representatives and the eventual transfer to the National Archives and Records Administration and any other institutions which the Office of the Historian may deem appropriate. This deed of gift also extends to any artifacts, images, or papers, which I may choose to give to the Office of the Historian to accompany the interview.

In making this gift I fully understand that I am conveying all legal title and literary property rights which I have or may be deemed to have in my interview as well as my rights, title, and interest in any copyright which may be secured under the laws now or later in force and effect in the United States of America. Audio files, video files, and copies of interview transcripts may not be published, reproduced, or broadcast in any medium before being processed and/or published by the Office of the Historian without written permission. Once processed, I voluntarily convey ownership of the recordings and transcripts to the public domain.

I, Matthew A. Wasniewski, accept the interview of November 14, 2018, for inclusion into the oral history program of the Office of the Historian, U.S. House of Representatives.
