My dear Sir:

Under instructions from this association, I take pleasure in advising you of the action taken at our last regular meeting, when the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, In the mature judgment of this gathering of old-time printers and newspapermen, it is apparent that efforts to perpetuate the saloon are part of the insidious pro-German propoganda which has for its object the further crippling of this nation in the world war fro democracy; be it

Resolved, By the Old-Time Printers' Association of Chicago, composed of employing and journeymen printers and newspapermen of past and present trade union affiliations, that it is the sense of this, our 127th quarterly meeting, that the conservation of the nation's resources, in this hour of its greatest peril, demands the enactment, by the Senate and House of Representatives at Washington, of legislation which will at once and for all time remove the blighting curse of the liquor traffic, root and branch, from American life; and

Resolved, That copies of this preamble and resolutions be transmitted by our officers to President Wilson, Senators Lewis and Sherman, and every Illinois Congressman, with our earnest prayer for their favorable consideration.

Requesting your acknowledgment of the receipt of our communication, and thanking you for the attention we are confident you will accord it, I remain,

Respectfully yours,

William Mill
