

Charlottesville Va., Dec 10th 1868.

To the Honorable the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States:

GENTLEMEN:

The undersigned respectfully prays your honorable bodies to relieve him of the disabilities imposed upon him by the 14th Article of the Constitution of the United States, and the "Reconstruction Acts"; and as in duty bound he will ever pray, &c.

Judge Alex. Rives has my petition to Congress for a removal of my disabilities.

REMARKS.

The following is an accurate statement of the offices held before the war, the acts committed in support of the rebellion, and the present political status of the above named

Mr. Ira Garrett is seventy-six years of age - was elected Clerk of the County Court in 1831, and Clerk of Circuit Court, of Albemarle in 1852, and has continued to act in each Court to the present time.

He gave no support to the Rebellion, other than sympathy, which was carried out, by feeding the hungry soldiers, and attending to the wants of the sick.

He accepts the political situation of the Country.

He is now a Republican, and endorses the reconstruction policy of Congress.

Judge Alex. Rives has my petition to Congress to relieve me of my disabilities
