25 Took his seat July 2, 1868; term to expire March 3, 1869.
26 Took his seat July 1, 1868.
27 Although Georgia was not formally readmitted to representation until July 15, 1870 (in the succeeding Congress), the Representatives elected to this Congress qualified as indicated.
28 On December 7, 1868, the credentials of Joshua Hill, elected by the legislature to fill vacancy in the term beginning March 4, 1867, were presented and referred to the Committee on Elections, on January 11, 1869, the credentials of Homer V. M. Miller, elected in the same manner, for the term beginning March 4, 1865, were presented and were similarly referred; on January 25, 1869, the committee reported that the State of Georgia had not complied with the conditions of an act providing for her admission to representation and that Mr. Hill "sought not to be admitted"; February 17, 1869, the committee reported against admitting Mr. Miller to his seat, and the case remained undisposed of.
29 John A. Wimpy and John H. Cribb both claimed election from the sixth district, but neither was seated.
30 Took his seat July 25, 1868.
31 Resigned February 7, 1868.
32 Elected to fill vacancy caused by resignation of James Guthrie, and took his seat February 28, 1868.
33 On July 3, 1867, it was proposed to seat all the Members-elect from Kentucky, but protests against the manner of holding the election and charges of disloyalty acts by certain individual members of the delegation were presented and a resolution was adopted directing an investigation and referring to the Committee on Elections the credentials of Messrs. Lawrence S. Trimble, John Y. Brown, J. Proctor Knott, Asa P. Grover, Thomas L. Jones, James B. B. Beck, and John D. Young, who were not permitted to qualify pending this investigation; Samuel E. Smith contested the election of John Y. Brown, but the House, on February 15, 1868, decided that neither was entitled to the seat, which remained vacant throughout the Congress.
34 Election unsuccessfully contested by G. G. Symes; took his seat January 10, 1868.
35 Died May 8, 1867, never having qualified; the election of Mr. Hise was subsequently unsuccessfully contested by George D. Blakey, claiming to have been elected from this district instead of Mr. Hise, filed a protest against the seating of Mr. Golladay, but this protest was not allowed.
36 Charges of disloyalty were unsustained, and took his seat December 3, 1867.
37 Charges of disloyalty were unsustained, and took his seat December 4, 1867.
38 Successfully contested the election of John D. Young, and took his seat June 22, 1868.
39 Readmitted to representation July 9, 1868.
40 Took his seat July 17, 1868; term to expire March 3, 1871.
41 Took his seat July 17, 1868; term to expire March 3, 1873.
42 Took his seat July 18, 1868.
43 Took his seat July 18, 1868; died August 26, 1868.
44 Elected for term beginning March 4, 1867, and took his seat March 9, 1868. The credentials of Senator-elect Philip F. Thomas were presented March 18, 1867, but he was not permitted to qualify; on February 19, 1868, the Senate adopted a resolution that he was not entitled to qualify as he had "voluntarily given aid, countenance, and encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility to the United States."
